

PEOPLE'S SUMMIT

university of baltimore, 1/22/2005

The People's Summit is a free, day-long conference of individuals, activists and organizations. It is intended to bring Baltimore area progressives together to meet, learn, network and plan for the future. This opportunity to build a stronger, more effective community has never been more needful.

We are currently accepting workshop proposals via our website. If you have information or a skill to share, log onto: www.ubprogressives.org.

People's Summit 2005: Building For Progress